TO PERSONS REQUIRING MANUFACTURING PREMISES and OTHERS.—The Extensive and Commodious WORKSHOPS and PREMISES formerly in the occupation of the late firm of Grissell and Peto, with suit of offices and stables in the York-road, Lambeth, near West-minster-bridge, and the terminus of the South-Western Railway, are to be LET or LEASE.—Apply at Mr. GRISSELL'S Offices, No. 11, New Palace-yard, Westminster.

EXTENSIVE WATERSIDE FRONTAGE, on the north bank of the REGENT'S CANAL, with another FRONTAGE to the QUEEN'S-ROAD, DALSTON, suitable for a Brewery, Wharf, Factory, or any business requiring such premises, TO BE LET, on a building lease for 99 years.—For plans and particulars apply to Mr. BAYLOCK, Surveyor, Shacklewell-road, Dalston; or to Messrs. OVERTON and HUGHES, Solicitors, 26, Old Jewry.

TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS.

BUILDING LAND, KENSINGTON.—TO LET, in lots, upon Building Leases, a large extent of FRONTAGE, situate at Kensington, well adapted for the erection of genteel residences.—For particulars and plans apply to Mr. SAMUEL RHODES, Surveyor, 4, Grove, Hammersmith; and Mr. G. MITCHELL, Auctioneer, 67, Moleseu-terrace, Belgrave-road; and Messrs. WILKINSON, GURNEY, and STEVENS, Solicitors, Nicholas-lane, Lombard-street.

DATCHET.—FREEHOLD BUILDING GROUND for detached villas, commanding a magnificent view of Windsor Castle and grounds, consisting of about 10 acres of meadow land, bounded on the north and east sides by a handsome belt of established trees, and on the west side by the public road from Datchet to Upton, Slough, and Eton, within a few minutes' walk of the railway station, the church, and the Thames. In connection with the property is a spot of ground adjoining the Thames, with a bathing cottage upon it, which can be enlarged and improved, and made available for the occupiers of houses erected upon the above land. TO BE SOLD, as a whole or in convenient plots.—Apply at the offices of Mr. MAPLESTONE, Architect, Surveyor, and Estate Agent, 7, Buckingham-street, where plans and particulars may be obtained.

TO BE LET, Convenient Roomy PREMISES, consisting of dwelling-house, workshops, stable, yard, and wharf, with strong crane, &c., situated in Augustus-street, Regent's-canal, Basin.—Apply to Mr. KNAPP, 34, Poley-street, St. Marylebone.

TO BE LET, with advances, term 100 years, CARCASES and BUILDING FRONTAGES, situate in GROVE-ROAD, UPPER HOLLOWAY, between Holloway-road and Tollington-park. Also, Carcases and Building Frontages, near the London Fields, Queen's-road, Dalston, term 99 years.—For further particulars apply to Mr. STODART, on the Holloway Estate; Mr. TAYLOR, Surveyor, Shacklewell-road, Dalston; or Messrs. TO BE LET, on lease or by the year, near EXBRIDGE, a commodious FAMILY RESIDENCE, in thorough repair, and recently painted, distant one mile and a half from the West Drayton Station of the Great Western Railway. An excellent garden, the gate to and from every train, calling at West Drayton. The house contains handsome drawing and dining rooms, morning-room, ten bed rooms, convenient kitchen and servants' offices, with stabling and other out-buildings. An excellent old-stocked garden, well stocked, and about sixteen acres of meadow and pasturing the house. A branch of the Colne runs through the grounds, with exclusive right of fishing. For particulars, and to view, apply to Messrs. HENDERSONS and HILLIARD, 31, Bloomsbury-square, or to SAMUEL BEAZLEY, Esq., M.P., Exbridge.

THE PRINCE'S PARK.—FREEHOLD LAND in this Park is on SALE, in Lots suitable for the erection of detached Villas or for Terraces (Villa Lots, 100 and upwards). Here a purchaser can secure for a long term of years, in an open and pleasant situation, the views from the Park combine a portion of the most beautiful parts of the River, the Chesshire Shore, &c. The object in the formation of the Park was to give a open situation for rivalet, but to provide an open and healthful space for the enjoyment of the inhabitants of Liverpool. Lots will, therefore, be sold on terms merely remunerative of the price originally paid for the entire Estate (about 100 acres), and the expenses thereon; and purchasers can either pay down the purchase-money or pay a ground-rent at their option; and respectable Builders will otherwise be accommodated. If needful, Builders could probably find it advantageous to erect Terrace Houses, of moderate size, near St. Paul's Church. In the centre of the Park there is an extensive and beautiful garden, to which the inhabitants of the houses have access, on payment of a small fixed contribution towards the wages and general expenses. Other Plots of Land may be had free from any such payment, but they have not the privilege of access to the reserve garden. The Walks and Drives within the Park are well constructed, the approaches to them are very good, and communicate pic rnarkably.—Apply to JOHN STEWART, Esq., Leigh-street, ARTHUR HOLME, Esq., Bencoolen-street; Mr. GEORGE WILLIAMS, Caze-street; or Mr. GEO. H. WILLIAMS, Land Agent, Caze-street.

WESTMINSTER IMPROVEMENTS.—The Commissioners will shortly be prepared to OPEN the NEW STREET in WESTMINSTER, to be called VICTORIA-STREET, leading from the Abbey to the neighbourhood of Buckingham-gate, and of a width of 90 feet throughout. Several PLOTS of GROUND, suitable for extensive private and public buildings, and of such dimensions as it is impossible to obtain in any more central part of the metropolis, are still unlet. The Commissioners will be ready to receive letters from trustees or other persons interested on behalf of public institutions or establishments, for renting or purchasing sites, before the final arrangements are decided on for appropriating the whole of the street to builders. Plans and particulars may be obtained of HENRY ASHTON, Esq., Surveyor to the Commissioners, at their Offices, 28, Great George-street, Westminster. THOMAS BILLINGS, Clerk.

TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS.

FIFTY ACRES of FREEHOLD TITHE-FREE LAND TO BE LET, in plots, on Building Leases, for ninety-nine years, with most eligible sites for villas, and having views of Windsor Castle, in first-rate neighbourhood. Where houses are required and sought for, in the close vicinity of the Great Western Railway, and for enough removed to be agreeable. There is brick-earth of the first quality to be had on one part of the estate, the roads are excellent, and the country beautiful.—Apply to Mr. CHASEMAN, Fulham.

FREEHOLD BUILDING GROUND.—TO BE SOLD, or LET on Lease, about two acres of Ground, situated in the most desirable part of TWICKENHAM, near the Railway Station, and facing Pope's Grove. It has a frontage of upwards of 200 feet, and lies on the high road from London to Hampton Court, and with the ground will be granted the privilege of a private access to and from the River Thames. To parties purchasing or leasing cash will be advanced towards building the villas, and the money may lie, at the option of the borrower, for a period of seven years. It shall also be in the option of the lessee to redeem the ground-rent at any time during the first seven years.—For plans and further particulars apply to JAMES CLARK, 34, Billiter-street, London.

MESSRS. BLAKE will SELL BY AUCTION, at Garraway's Coffee-house, Change-alley, Cornhill, on FRIDAY, May 2, at Twelve, under the authority of the trustees for sale in Lots, nearly 20 ACRES of magnificent FREEHOLD BUILDING LAND (part of the Dingwall Estate), of a most superior quality, both in texture and soil (upon a substratum of gravel), lying on the east or upper side of the town, and comprising the entire two-mile long [illegible] which [illegible] London, Dover, Brighton, and the South Coast, and by continuous lines with the Great Western and the North-Western Railways. The land will be judiciously laid out, a large proportion for buildings of a superior class, and provision will be made for securing purchasers from the deteriorating effects of an indiscriminate appropriation of adjoining lots. The sale will include two capital Freehold detached Private Residences, with Green and Pleasure Grounds, and Orchards, situate in New-lane, on the top of George-street, for the respective occupations of Dr. Robinson and Edward Russell, Esqrs. The limits of an advertisement forbid any lengthened commentary, but it may be briefly added, that the circumstances under which the sale takes place, coupled with the unusually high character of the land for a freehold building estate, can only fail to render the transaction one of unusual interest to men of enterprise and capital, to whom the grand desideratum, "success," may be considered as morally certain.—The London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company, in order to extend facilities for suburban residence in connexion with their line of railway, have officially announced an extensive reduction in their scale of charges for annual tickets on and after the 1st July next, as also a further accommodation in an increased number of trains.—Plans and particulars will be issued fourteen days before the sale, and will then be obtainable from Messrs. DRUMMOND, ROBINSON, and TILL, Solicitors, Croydon; of Messrs. RUSSELL, Solicitors, No. 21, Martin's-lane, Cannon-street; at Garraway's Coffee-house, Change-alley; and of Messrs. BLAKE, Croydon.

SUFFOLK.—IPSWICH PAPER MILLS.

ROBERT GARROD respectfully announces that he is instructed to offer for SALE BY AUCTION, at the Auction Mart, London, on WEDNESDAY, the third day of April, 1851, at Twelve o'clock (unless previously disposed of by private contract), the extensive and valuable FREEHOLD PAPER MILLS and PREMISES, at IPSWICH, Suffolk. The mills are most substantially built, and comprise spacious and well-arranged buildings and rooms adapted for advantageously carrying on every branch of the paper trade. There are also a newly-erected dwelling-house for the residence of a manager or resident partner, with garden, yards, &c., containing altogether including the site of the house, mills, &c., nearly 2½ acres of land. The machinery consists chiefly of three steam engines, of forty, fifteen, and eight horse power; eight rag engines, two paper machines, two Hanscel patent sizing and drying machines, two cutting machines, four pairs of waiting mills, a large pair of four half-stuff and a large bleaching engine, stone vats, pre-engine, pre-master, and fittings, &c., &c. The mills have been recently built, and fitted at a large cost, for the production of fine paper, and, as now arranged, are capable of producing from seven to eight tons per week and, with slight additions, the productive power might be considerably increased. There is an almost inexhaustible supply of excellent spring water, and rags of all description can be procured in the locality at comparatively low prices. Ipswich is within 70 miles of London, and in immediate connection with railway and water carriage. The property is advantageously situate at a short distance from the docks. The mills may be seen at work, and early possession may be had. A fair proportion of the purchase-money may remain on mortgage, at 4l. per cent. For further particulars, conditions of sale, and leave to view, apply to Messrs. BODWELL, STEWARD, and BODWELL, or Mr. NOTCUTT, Solicitors, or of the Auctioneers, Ipswich, Suffolk; or of Mr. JAMES JONES, No. 3, Great George-street, Westminster; or Mr. J. F. RANSOM, the present manager, on the premises. Printed particulars and conditions of sale may also be had at the Auction Mart, London.
